Half-Time Incumbent (St. Margaret's Peachland)

The Bishop of Kootenay is receiving applications for a half-time priest incumbent for St. Margaret's Anglican Parish in the town of Peachland, British Columbia.

"St. Margaret's is seeking leadership to help us realize our ministry and mission moving forward, which may be a ministry reaching out to the senior demographic in our town. We need a priest who will lead us in reflection on what our Anglican faith may look like moving forward. St. Margaret's is blessed with a mature yet vibrant and energetic congregation who may be small in numbers, but are mighty in faith. We are located in beautiful Peachland, BC, boasting 7 km of beach front and walkway on Okanagan Lake, close to three major hills offering hiking, skiing and cross country, with the larger City of Kelowna 30 kilometers west."

The Diocese of Kootenay Synod office is in Kelowna. There is strong collegiality amongst clergy with a diversity of ages and backgrounds. The population in the Okanagan Valley is rapidly growing while smaller centres in more rural areas are adapting to different ministry needs (e.g. Shared Ecumenical ministries, Multi-point parishes). The Kootenay Diocese needs adventurous and creative leadership.

Due to the COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic, the Bishop will only be considering applicants from within Canada. Applicants are asked to request the parish profile from the Diocese, admin@kootenay.info

Apply to:

The Most Reverend Lynne McNaughton, Bishop of Kootenay
#201 - 380 Leathead Road
Kelowna, BC V1X 2H8

Applications are being received until April 1, 2022 by the Bishop's Administrator, Kate Dalton at admin@kootenay.info.

St. Margaret's is open to sharing a priest with another parish seeking a part-time incumbent in the vicinity to create a full-time position. See separate ad for St.Mary's East Kelowna.
